The court of the Principal Sub Judge.

Gaya.

Petition Suit No. 124 of 1996.

Sri Prayadharshan deceased son of Sri Ram Bageshwar deceased at present residing at C/O Sri Bageshwar deceased, Birha Library Road Patna district Patna.
..... Plaintiff.

versus

1. Sri Ram Bageshwar deceased son of Late Sri Ram
Bindeshwar deceased.
2. Smt. Ram's Devi deceased wife of Sri Ram Bageshwar deceased.

3. Sri Harshwardhan deceased & sons of Sri Ram
4. Sri Anandachari deceased Bageshwar deceased.

All residents of Birha Library Road Patna district.

Resident of Birha Library Road Patna district.

..... Defendants.

Plaintiff states as follows:-

That the relationship obtaining between the parties would appear from the following genealogy

Sri Ram Prayadharshan deceased

Raj Bindeshwar Prasad (2)

Raj B. Gopal Prasad
(Defendant No. 1)

Smt. Kamla Kanti Prasad
(Defendant No. 2)

Raj Privedharshan Raj Harshwardhan Raj Anandwardhan
(Plaintiff) (Defendant 3) (Defendant 4)

2. That the genealogical table would be that Sri Raj Bindeshwar Prasad common ancestor of the parties, had a son defendant no. 1 Raj B. Gopal Prasad.

3. That the plaintiff is the head of the family of his own family comprised of himself his wife and children and he is living as such, is the eldest son of defendant no. 1 and his wife Smt. Kamla Kanti Prasad, defendant no. 2 Raj Harshwardhan Prasad and Raj Anandwardhan Prasad defendants 3 and 4 respectively are the other sons of defendant 1 and 2.

4. That defendant no. 1 is the head of the family of his joint family comprising all the children.

5. That the parties come of a premier family of the city of Oaya and the plaintiff and the defendant have amicably divided the bulk of their joint family properties both ancestral as also acquired with the help of the family nucleus and movable except for some housing properties which have remained undivided.

6. That plaintiff has engaged himself in business and has been living with his family there. He has little time or inclination to enjoy the use and utilisation of the properties still remaining undivided between the parties.

7. That the plaintiff is also expert in allowing the undivided properties to remain joint as he is unable to use and utilise the same to his best advantage.

8. That as such plaintiff sought for amicable partition of the undivided family properties from his father and brothers. Defendant NO. 1 an old aristocrat of a traditional set of mind, did not take kindly to this request and asked the plaintiff plaintiff not to press for partition during the life time of defendant No. 1.

9. That this being not acceptable to the plaintiff he again pressed defendants for a private amicable partition which, however, was refused on 1.5.56; hence the suit.

10. That the share of the plaintiff in the partition claimed properties detailed in the schedule appended to the plaint, is $1/5$ (one fifth) and the remaining $4/5$ (fourth fifth) share therein belongs to defendants. The parties are in joint contest and enjoyment of the properties under partition.

11. That the cause of action for the suit arose on 1.6.56 when partition was refused at Bhabha Kisan ghat, Lal Bahadur Shastri Path, Gaya Pergana and Revenue Thana Town Gaya District Gaya within the jurisdiction of the court.

12. That the suit is valued at Rs. 75,000/- (Rupees seventy five thousand) only being the present market value of the properties under partition of jurisdiction.

SA. Puri Prigadevsham Prasad

5 |

13. That the plaintiff, on payment of fixed court fee worth Rs. 250/- (Rupees Two hundred and fifty only) seeks the following
