ORDER

None appears on behalf of either side.

The complainant has never turned up before the Bench on all previous dates. Today also, he is absent.

After having perused the record, the Bench observes that complainant has failed to take necessary action in furtherance of his reliefs as he has not actively pursued it since the first listing of this case till date, which means that the complainant has lost interest in pursuing his case.

In view of the above circumstances, there is no need to carry on case where the complainant is not interested to press his remedies. Hence, it is dismissed for want of prosecution.
