Hearing taken up. Brother-in-law of the complainant is present. None appears for the respondent.

As the respondent is absent today and also on previous four dates of hearing despite issuance of notice to him, it appears that the respondent has chosen not to appear and hence, necessary steps should be taken by the representative of the complainant for publication of notice in a leading newspaper which has wide circulation in the area, for ensuring the presence of the respondent on the next date of hearing, at the cost of the complainant.
